CHURCHMEN FORM IMMENSE PARADE

Eucharistic Congress at Montreal Goes Into History. 500,000 SEE LAST SERVICES

Montreal, Sept. 12. — Over 100,000 persons, laymen and clerical, formed the great procession which, from a spectacular point of view closed the twenty-first Eucharistic congress. It is estimated that close to 500,000 people were massed along the route from Place D'Armes to Fletcher's field on the mountain side. His eminence, Cardinal Vannutelli, walking under a huge canopy and carrying a monstrance containing the host, stood the journey from Notre Dame to the open air altar well, but it was evident that he was completely worn out, and that a few moments more before being helped into his carriage after the ceremony, would have seen his collapse. His calm, pleasant face was pale and drawn and he tottered and almost fell as he ascended the altar steps. Other dignitaries in the procession, many of them old had to be assisted before the end of the route had been reached. Although the procession went off without a hitch there were many accidents reported along the route. Many enterprising citizens built grandstands, small flimsy affairs, along the streets on which the procession was to pass. Although they were all inspected and passed upon by the building department, several of them collapsed. Boys fell out of windows, off fences and telegraph poles, and women fainted from the crush and heat. At 1:15 Sunday the mighty bells of Notre Dame announced to the waiting thousands that the procession and started. It was nearly 6 o'clock when they pealed again, announcing that the host was leaving the church. In the procession the laity came first, marching by parishes or choirs or societies, or organizations, of one description or another. The delegates from all parts of the world were included. Most of them wore no uniforms. A body of papal squires in their baggy trousers and red and grey uniforms, followed the police and firemen at the head of the procession, while another detachment brought up the rear. The lay brothers led the clerical division. Then came the friars, the fathers, the priests, all the different grades of the church, men from every part of the world. They were followed by choir boys and a coterie supplied in red. Following them came 150 bishops and archbishops, clad in all the gorgeous splendor of the Roman Catholic church. Each bishop was attended by two priests. The smell of incense and the singing of a boys' choir announced the coming of the papal legate and the host. His eminence walked under a canopy attended by Prince De Croy and the other members of his staff. Before him were young flower girls clad in red and blue satin, who cast flowers before the legate as he walked. The flowers were offerings from all over the world, every Roman Catholic parish having done something to contribute blossoms. It was a bed of flowers his eminence walked upon from the church to the Champ de Mars. Following the canopy were altar boys carrying candles, and then more boys with incense. The Sixty-Fifth regiment of Montreal, the French-Canadian corps, acted as the guard of honor. Cardinal Gibbons was the next dignitary to walk after the papal legate. After him was Cardinal Logue. Archbishop Bruchesi of Montreal brought up the rear. When the repository on Fletcher's field was reached, the benediction of the Holy Sacrament took place, after which the clergy went to the Hotel Dieu, where the holy host was placed. Last evening the whole city was illuminated, and the crowds on the streets were immense. Many persons only came for the day, and they could find no place to sleep or to eat, or the means of getting back to their homes. Over a hundred extra trains left the city after 7 o'clock last night, but the congestion continued around the stations.

FAMILY THEATRE

The Lupita-Pera Co. presenting one of the most sensational trapeze acts of the present time is at the Family theatre the first three days of this week. Their act is more of a novelty than the trapeze acts that have been seen in this city.

Klein and Clifton also have a brilliant act this season and an act that is in every respect a novelty. Novelities are unusual in the vaudeville field but in this instance it is cleverly furnished and makes an immediate hit. It is entitled the Dummy's holiday, and embodies an idea that is distinctly original. The audiences will be amused immensely and will be cordially received.

MANY DIXON PEOPLE ATTEND MEETING

TIFFANY'S SUPPORTERS CHARTERED TWO INTERURBAN CARS—PLEASED WITH MEETING

Hundreds of persons heard Attorney R. R. Tiffany of Freeport, candidate for congress, deliver an address at Sterling Saturday evening. It was an open air meeting. Previous to the speaking the two bands secured for the occasion gave a short concert.

Mr. Tiffany was introduced by Judge R. W. E. Mitchell of Sterling. A number of his supporters here engaged two special interurban cars and invited their friends to take a free ride to Sterling. The men who had charge of the Dixon specials were James E. Drew, M. J. McGowan and State Senator B. F. Downing.

At Sterling the Dixon boys formed in line lead by the twelve members of the Dixon Marine band and marched several blocks to the meeting. The Sterling band also participated in the parade.

The crowd returned to Dixon late in the evening and reported a very pleasant and satisfactory trip.

MACCABEES MEET

The Knights of Maccabees will hold their regular meeting tonight. All members are requested to be present as arrangements for attending the funeral of Sir Knight P. J. Blackburn will be acted upon.

McKenzie Replies to His Detractors

Explains Connection with Rawleigh's Bill and Says Attack in Franklin Grove Paper Was Instigated by His Opponent.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 13TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:—

I wish to say a few words to you in reply to an article published in the Franklin Reporter, bearing date of September 8, 1910, and which also may be published in other papers of like character, for a price paid by the men promoting the candidacy of Mr. R. R. Tiffany. It has been intimated to me for some time that certain supporters of Mr. Tiffany in the City of Freeport intended to publish something for the purpose of injuring my reputation. I have positive information that newspapers, supporting Mr. Tiffany but edited by men of honorable character conversant with the facts, have absolutely refused to publish this article. These editors knew the contemptible motives of the men who were seeking its publication.

Now, what is the truth: Mr. Rawleigh is a business man in the City of Freeport, a constituent of mine as Senator from the Twelfth district. He came to Springfield during the Session of 1907 and requested me to introduce his bill in the senate. There was nothing bad in the bill and it is not so charged by the authors of the attack upon me. It was my duty to introduce any bill brought to me by any constituent of good standing and then let the legislature and the Governor pass upon its merits. This I did. The bill passed the Senate but I did not vote for it, being absent attending the funeral of my mother.

Mr. Rawleigh, or no one else for him, ever paid me one dollar for my service in connection with said bill. Neither has any one else paid me any sum of money for the introduction, or promoting, of any other legislation, and any man, who makes any such assertion either openly or by insinuation, is a willful and malicious liar. The only purpose of the article in question is to attempt by cowardly insinuations to bring about the nomination of Mr. Tiffany, by blackening my character as a public servant.

After the adjournment of the General Assembly, knowing that I had familiarized myself with the laws affecting his business, Mr. Rawleigh employed me to prepare what, in my judgement, would be a proper and safe letter of instructions to his traveling salesman, and also to assist in carrying a case to the Supreme Court should such action be necessary. A part of my letter is given in the article published. For this service Mr. Rawleigh paid me One Hundred Dollars and I receipted to him for the same. There was nothing in this transaction pertaining to, or affecting, legislation, or my duties as a public servant, and the man, or men, who instigated this villainous attack at the eleventh hour of this campaign, well know this to be the fact.

Why were not these charges brought forward in this campaign in time so that I might appear before the voters and answer them in person? The Franklin Grove Reporter states that it has had these facts in its possession for some time. The occurrence complained of was in 1907. I have been making an open campaign for four months. It is simply a cowardly assault at the last moment made with the hope that I will not be able, before Primary day, to answer these charges, or the voters to learn the truth.

As a public servant I have earnestly endeavored to perform my whole duty to the people. I have conducted a clean, honorable campaign, and, if the people of this Congressional district desire to defeat me with full knowledge of the battles I have fought for them, and to send to Washington as their representative a man who will permit, or whose campaign managers will stoop to, such disreputable campaign methods I have no complaint to make.

Voters it is for you to decide.

Very Respectfully, John C. McKenzie.

WATTERSON SEES U.S. DICTATORSHIP

Editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal States Belief. SAYS T. R.'S OBJECT IS PLAIN

Predicts Roosevelt Will Be Candidate for President With the Diazification of the United States as Outcome if Successful.

Sandusky, O., Sept. 12.—Col. Henry Watterson, of Louisville, in an interview, made plain his belief that Col. Theodore Roosevelt's comet-like swing through the central west is part of an insidious, preliminary maneuvering toward the ultimate Diazification of the United States, with Roosevelt as the dictator.

"A question as to Col. Roosevelt's object is childish," he said. "A school boy should be able to answer. His most enthusiastic receptions have been by the men not overly friendly to President Taft. His companions have been disciples of his policies, the cast-offs of the present administration. Some may doubt the colonel's intentions; I question if President Taft doubts.

"Col. Roosevelt will be a candidate for the presidency in the next Republican national convention. If nominated, the paramount issue will be the third term and all that it implies toward growing despotism. If he is elected, the way will be paved for 1916 so well that election will be merely a form. By 1920 an election will not be necessary. The colonel will have emulated Diaz. Should he mount to the heights of a dictatorship history, I fear, will repeat itself. The American people have been trained along lines which will not permit them tamely to submit to such a plan.

"The new issue of righteousness in public life is Roosevelt's. The old issues are dead. Sectarianism between north and south is ended. Sectionalism danger now lies in that between east and west. The colonel is playing for the support of the west."

GOLD BULLION IS STOLEN

Alaska Shipment Short $57,500; Lead Used as Substitute.

Detectives Have Not Yet Been Able to Secure Single Important Clue in Boldest Robbery of Kind.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 12.—Gold bullion worth $57,500, part of a $170,000 shipment from the Washington-Alaska bank of Fairbanks, Alaska, to the Dexter-Horton National bank of Seattle, was stolen and lead substituted in the strong box containing it, between the time the precious parcel was examined by customs officers at Dawson, Yukon territory and when it was opened at the United States assay office here.

When or how the treasures was spirited away, forms a mystery detectives have spent thirty-six hours in a fruitless endeavor to solve. So far not a single important clue, not a bit of evidence to suggest at what point along the 1,400 mile route the robbery, which stands as one of the boldest of its kind ever executed, was committed. The gold was insured against loss.

MARRIED UNDER DIFFICULTY

Aged Groom Walks 20 Miles to Change Gunner for Marriage License.

Baltimore, Sept. 12.—After a strenuous experience William Boyd, 96, of Stevenson, Baltimore county, married Mrs. Eliza Ann Daniel, aged 59. The wedding occurred in the Stevenson, Md. church, which was crowded to the doors, interest being heightened by the ope of the bridegroom and peculiar mistake in the first license.

The clerk of the court mistook Mr. Boyd's mission when he applied for a marriage license and issued a gunner's license instead. The bridegroom-to-be did not discover the mistake until after he had returned home. After supper he hiked back to Towson, which is ten miles distant from his home, routed out the clerk and secured a proper license. He walked both ways.

MEETING OF REPUBLICANS

The republicans of the Second precinct will meet at the city hall at 7:30 tonight for the purpose of selecting some man for committeeman.

AFTER SUFFERING FOR YEARS

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Park Rapids, Minn.—"I was sick for years while passing through the change of life and was hardly able to be around. After taking six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I gained 20 pounds, am now able to do my own work and feel well."—Mrs. Ed. LA DOT, Park Rapids, Minn.

Brookville, Ohio.—"I was irregular and extremely nervous. A neighbor recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I have become regular and my nerves are much better."—Mrs. R. KINNISON, Brookville, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

How one man fooled his wife

She had been using her favorite baking powder. Wouldn't think of trying anything else, because "mother always used it," or some similar excuse. Hubby said she was prejudiced. He figured if Calumet, the new baking powder, selling at a moderate price, could be so successful, there must be some good in it. So he took a hand, and bought a can of Calumet, emptied the can containing her "favorite" baking powder and filled it with Calumet.

That evening, unsuspecting the trick, Wife prepared and served some of her famous biscuit— piping hot, temptingly browned and puffed up to airy lightness, they were even more delicious than usual. Hubby, after considerable difficulty, succeeded in convincing her that the basis of the improvement was Calumet Baking Powder. And so an everlasting friend for Calumet was made.

This truthful little incident simply proves that the housewife is often prejudiced against all baking powders except the one she has been using for years. She imagines that no other kind can possibly be as good. This is a mistaken impression. A trial of Calumet will prove that it is purer, more reliable; it has a greater leavening power than any other baking powder made. And it is moderate in price.

WHY NOT GET RID OF CATARRH?

Here are some symptoms of catarrh: If you have any of them, get rid of them while there is yet time:

- Is your throat raw?
- Do you sneeze often?
- Is your breath foul?
- Are your eyes watery?
- Do you take cold easily?
- Is your nose stopped up?
- Do you have to spit often?
- Do crabs form in your nose?
- Are you losing your sense of smell?
- Do you blow your nose a great great?

Does your mouth taste bad mornings? Do you have to clear your throat on rising, or have a discharge from the nose? Does mucus drop in back of throat? Have you ringing noises in the ears?

HYOMEI (pronounce it High-omei) is guaranteed to cure catarrh, coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, asthma and croup, or money back. Just breathe it in. Complete outfit, including hard rubber inhaler, $1. Rowland Bros. and druggists every where sell HYOMEI. If you already own an inhaler, you can buy an extra bottle of HYOMEI for only 50c. Remember that.

Brief Rules For the Guidance of Unfavored Suitors.

WHAT TO DO WHEN REJECTED

Always Try to Parry the Blow With a Ready Reply. Because Staring in Reproachful Silence Gives the Lady a Chance to Change Her Mind.

Incredible as it may seem, proposals of marriage are sometimes refused, usually because the lady thinks she knows better.

To comport one's self fittingly when rejected is no easy matter. The young beginner is advised to give some thought to his next move in the event of his proposal being declined. To stand staring in reproachful silence displays a lack of savior faith and incidentally gives the lady a chance to change her mind.

The really nice young man when rejected inclines to gloom. The average young man takes up an attitude of sprightliness. To display relief when rejected may not seem in the best taste, but if a girl has refused you that is sufficient evidence that she has no taste at all.

Let us consider the method of the really nice young man. He hints at a broken heart—a picturesque but improbable happening. He asks if there is no hope. Always he speaks in "low tone." There is the authority of the best fiction for this. Apparently he never shouts his query from the doorsteps as he is departing. He mentions suicide in a noncommittal way and eventually takes his leave "with one last fond, lingering look at her." One can only hope he does not spoil the dramatic value of his exit by tripping over the doormat.

So much for the really nice young man. The average young man has a variety of methods for keeping his end up in the event of being rejected. He imparts an air of levity to the proceedings which must be distinctly irritating when one is expecting time honored references to fractured hearts and blighted hopes.

Copying the average young man, you may therefore when rejected laugh heartily and then remark:

"Well, but, joking apart, isn't the weather beautiful?"

There is something about this formula which prevents the waste of any emotion except annoyance.

Another formula in taking refusals is to smile with satisfaction and say the simple words:

"I win!"

While the damsel is puzzling out what the words may mean you can effect your escape.

In the event of an emphatic refusal you can always ask smilingly:

"How did you guess I was joking?"

An effective way to prevent a lady promising to be a sister to you is to get there first by promising to be a son to her, and you can follow it up by saying:

"Oh, well, I must be getting along. I've got another call to make."

There is a subtlety about this remark which enables you to take your leave quite easily.

Always try, however, to be ready to say something at once. If after her "No" you think you have been silent overlong, assume a puzzled look and say:

"Let me see—what were we talking about?"

Should the girl give reasons for refusing you remark:

"Yes, that's just what Jane Jones said last month when I proposed to her."

It may happen that the lady answers your proposal thus:

"No, Harold, I can never be yours. I am affianced to another."

The best thing to do to avoid exposure of your disappointment is to exclaim:

"Yes, I knew that when I asked you."

Another formula when rejected lies in taking a list of names from your pocket, consulting it and remarking:

"You're Miss Susan Smith, aren't you?"

Then you put a tick against the name, sigh relievedly and take your leave.

If you have come primed to say "Thank you, Harriet; you have made me the happiest man in all the world," in answer to her acceptance there is no reason why you shouldn't say it in reply to her refusal.

In the event of receiving a refusal by letter pretend that you did not get it. This has a disquieting effect. Or if you want to get even wait till she questions you about it and then say with every symptom of glad relief:

"Oh, that letter was from you, was it? I couldn't quite make out the signature, and I thought it was from some one else on a similar matter."

A sportive remark is permissible sometimes when one is refused with lofty contempt:

"That's all right, old girl. Truth is I only asked you because I was feeling a bit sorry for you."

The main point is to be ready witted enough to keep your hat and stick in your hand. Do not leave the house whistling, though. It prevents you from exhibiting an amused smile when she peeps at you from behind the front room curtains.

With luck and practice you will be able to take a refusal of marriage quite well. Don't propose merely for practice, however. Your luck may not hold out.—London Opinion.

A Handy Snuffbox. A curious story is told as to how the Rothschilds supported Carafa, the composer. The latter was far from rich. His principal income was derived from a snuffbox. And this was the way of it: The snuffbox was given to the author of "La Prison d'Edimbourg" by Baron James de Rothschild as a token of esteem. Carafa sold it twenty-four hours later for 75 napoleons to the same jeweler from whom it had been bought. This became known to Rothschild, who gave it again to the musician on the following year. The next day it returned to the jeweler's. The traffic continued till the death of the banker and longer still, for his sons kept up the tradition, to the great satisfaction of Carafa.

TYPEWRITER BUILT TO ORDER

If you could have a typewriter made to order, how would you have it? Built for show—or built for SERVICE? Loaded down with attachments, devices and mechanisms—or simple, durable and efficient? Would you demand the most machinery—or the BEST; in materials, workmanship and results?

THE ROYAL STANDARD TYPEWRITER has every quality that you would demand in a made-to-order machine. It meets every requirement of efficiency, durability and economy.

The first thing you notice about the Royal is its simplicity. You see instantly that it is constructed on new and correct principles, with all needless attachments and devices eliminated. The Royal is built for service.

It has only about half as many parts as other standard machines. The simplicity thus secured works for your advantage in four ways: A saving in the original investment; low cost of maintenance; minimum of effort and maximum of convenience in operation; and the long life of the machine.

The price of the Royal is $65—a new standard price for a high-grade writing machine.

MISS ELSIE JANIS RETURNS TO THE STUDEBAKER, SEPT. 13, IN A NEW PLAY.
Tuesday evening, September 13, is the date announced for the opening of Elsie Janis' new comedy with music, "The Slim Princess." As usual Miss Janis will play at the Studenbaker where her last great successes "The Hoyden" and "The Fair Co-Ed" were so enthusiastically received.
The cast selected for Miss Janis' support is the largest and most noteworthy organization of the sort with which this delightfully entertaining star has ever been surrounded and her company includes some ninety-five experts in the art of musical comedy interpretation. The story is related in three acts, the first of which has for its locale, the kingdom of Borovina. The second and third acts transpire at the Chevy Chase Club and the Turkish Embassy Washington. The costuming and scenic mounting have been provided with the good taste and lavish expenditure peculiar to the Dillingham standard and of course, with a production of such magnitude, the orchestral assistance will be rendered by a band of some forty musicians.
During Miss Janis' engagement, no Sunday evening nor Wednesday afternoon performance will be played. The sale of seats is now open.

Both Stung.
Some time ago an eminent London physician requested an equally eminent surgeon to accompany him to see a distinguished but slippery patient. The patient was exceedingly polite to both the medical gentlemen, shaking hands with them and bowing them out of the room in the most affable manner. Soon after this professional visit the same physician called again on the surgeon, requesting him to accompany him to see another patient. On their way thither the surgeon observed, "I hope this patient will behave more liberally than the last did."
"Why?" said the M. D. "Did he not give you a fee?"
"Not a shilling," was the reply.
"Indeed!" said the eminent physician, with a toss of the head. "Why, he borrowed 2 guineas from me to take you to him!"—The-Ritz

Why She Was Silent.
A very silent old woman was once asked why it was she had so little to say. She replied that when she was a young girl she was very ill and could not talk for a long time, whereupon she made a vow that if speech were given her once more she would never again say anything unkind of anybody. And thus she was as they found her.—Exchange.

Getting Into a Life Buoy.

The average person in danger of drowning usually attempts to lift a life buoy over his head, with the result that he is immediately plunged deeper into the water. A good swimmer can do this with a sudden upward jerk, but with the nonswimmer it is almost an impossible feat. What he should do when he has seized the buoy is to place both hands, palms downward, on the buoy on the part nearest the body, pressing it downward and slightly away, when the farther part of the buoy will rise out of the water and actually fall over the head. The arms can then be put through easily, "and there you are."

SHERIFF'S OFFICE ON BUSINESS BASIS

C. P. REID HAS BEEN VALUABLE MAN IN THE OFFICE

C. P. Reid, candidate for the republican nomination for sheriff, is not a politician, but a business man. He received a thorough business training in the office of the well-known firm of F. E. Stiteley and Co. of Dixon, which, with the experience

CLARENCE P. REID
Tourtillott's Popular Deputy Who Seeks Nomination for Sheriff

he has gained during the past four years as chief deputy under Sheriff Tourtillott, qualifies him in the fullest sense for the office he is seeking. Up to June first, 1910, with six months yet to serve, the earnings of the sheriff's office under the present administration were $5,489.41, while the three previous administrations combined earned only $6,145.07. Mr. Reid has had a conspicuous part in making the record the present administration has achieved, and it would seem that tax paying voters should bear this in mind when they vote at the primary September 15.

HE WAS NOT IMMORTAL.

A Test That Proved It Was Possible to Kill a Spaniard.

Early in the sixteenth century the natives of Porto Rico plotted to kill the Spaniards on the island. There was much doubt, however, as to whether or not it was possible to kill a Spaniard. Many of the natives insisted that it was not. Finally it was decided to make an experiment.

A young Spaniard who was passing through an Indian village was hospitably received and fed, and then a number of natives accompanied him on his journey. When he arrived at a river his companions offered to carry him across.

The young man accepted and was taken up by two men and carried into the water on their shoulders. Arriving near the middle of the river, they threw him in and held him down until he ceased to struggle.

Then they carried him ashore with profuse apologies, loudly proclaiming that they stumbled by accident and calling upon him to arise and continue his journey. But the young man did not move, and finally the natives were convinced that he was actually dead.

Having secured the proof they wanted, the leaders of the rebellion at once began a general attack upon the Spaniards.—Blackwood's Magazine.

Unearned Gratitude.

A sample of the late Dr. William Everett's caustic repartee:

"I always experience a sense of deep obligation to you whenever I meet you or hear of you," said George Babbitt to Dr. Everett one morning when they found themselves pacing the deck of an ocean steamer together.

"Why so?" piped the doctor. "Because," said Mr. Babbitt, "I recall that I was once so fortunate as to win the Boylston prize for oratory at Harvard, and you were chairman of the board of judges."

"I remember it perfectly well," rejoined the brusque doctor. "The judges were five in number. At the conclusion of the speaking we retired to consider the merits of the contestants. It was moved that you be awarded a first prize. On that motion the vote was 3 to 2 in your favor. I was one of the two."—Boston Transcript.

Peculiarities of the Opossum.

The American opossum is one of the most curious animals living in the United States. It is the only one that carries its young in a pouch like the kangaroo. It is the only animal that can feign death perfectly. It is remarkable for hanging by its tail like a monkey. It has hands resembling those of a human being. Its snout is like a hog's, while its mouth is liberally furnished with teeth. Its eyes are like a rat's, and it hisses like a snake.

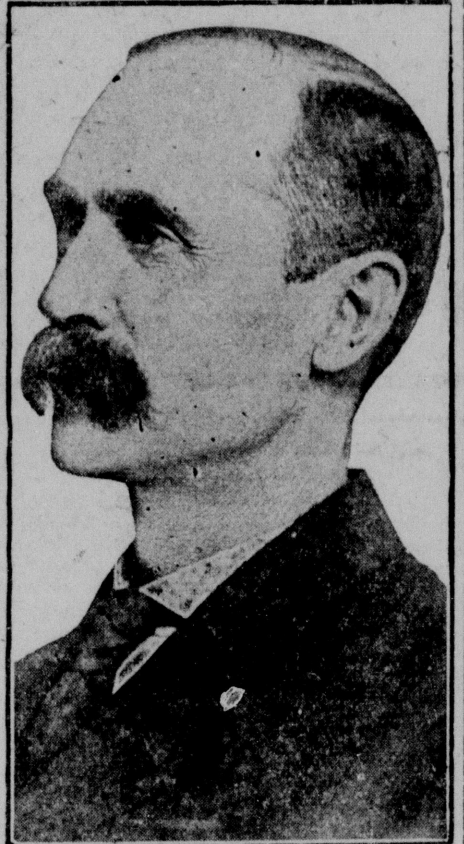

TOURTILLOTT CLOSES CLEAN CAMPAIGN

UNTIED MAN MAKES SPLENDID RECORD AS SHERIFF

WILL MAKE GOOD LEGISLATOR

He has the Confidence of Lee County's People—Stands for Pure Politics and Honest Legislation.

When in the campaign of four years ago Major A. T. Tourtillott as the farmer soldier candidate for sheriff of Lee county defeated the chairman of the Lee county republican county central committee for the nomination for sheriff he was, politically, an untied man. This was his first campaign and his first county office. His friends who were numerous had confidence in the sterling qualities of the unassuming farmer who said that if he was elected to the office of sheriff he would inaugurate a business administration in the office, give every detail the best attention and play no favorites. In other words he would see that all had a "square deal."

Major Tourtillott is now rounding out his fourth year as sheriff and at a recent meeting of the board supervisors his statement of the affairs of the office indicated that in the unfinished term of his office he had turned over to the county the proceeds of the office to an amount which was more than the combined earnings of the three preceding administrations. This is but one incident in which he has demonstrated that he was worthy of the confidence reposed in him by his friends who named him for his office.

During his administration Mr. Tourtillott has filled the office in a way which has given the most general satisfaction. At no time has there been even the slightest suspicion attached to his administration of the office and today the friends who stood by him in the fight for the county office are earnest for their support of his candidacy for the nomination as a member of the Illinois General Assembly. In these times when it is important that the very strongest men in the district be sent to Springfield to combat the corruption which is so prevalent there, the voters may place absolute confidence in the ability and integrity of the Major who has so well demonstrated his fitness to cope with the official duties of public office with credit to the party which he represents and honor to himself and friends.

The Producer.

"It must be annoying to have to ask your husband for money," said the intrusive woman.

"I wouldn't think of doing so," replied Mrs. Cumrox. "We insist on family games of bridge and in that way avoid being under the slightest obligations for what he contributes."—Washington Star.

MANY EDITORS OF 13TH DISTRICT FAVOR MCKENZIE FOR CONGRESSMAN.

Believe That He Will Give the People a "Square Deal" Worthy of Commendation.

PRONOUNCE HIM MOST AVAILABLE CANDIDATE TO SUCCEED LOWDEN—RECORD ESTABLISHED.

Many of the leading republican papers of the 13th congressional district have had kind words to say of John C. McKenzie of Elizabetta, Jo Daviess county, candidate for congress to succeed Frank O. Lowden in referring to his candidacy.

They believe him to be strictly honest and believe he will give the people of the district a "square deal" if the republicans nominate and elect him to one of the most important offices of the country.

The republicans of the district should bear in mind that John C. McKenzie was the one man who fought the bill which would have bonded the state of Illinois for $20,000,000 to dig a big ditch through the state. For that reason every republican taxpayer should support Senator McKenzie.

Senator McKenzie has made a clean and manly campaign.

There is no one that can point a finger at anything in Senator McKenzie's legislative career that has even the touch of suspicion to it.

The republicans should bear in mind that Senator McKenzie is a brainy man and capable of representing this district in congress as it should be represented.

The following brief extracts have been taken from thirteen of the leading newspapers of the district, and this will give the voters an idea of what the press believes John C. McKenzie to be.

Read each article carefully before you make up your mind what you will do with the congressional situation when you reach the polls on primary day.

MCKENZIE CLEAN SOCIALLY AND POLITICALLY

Amboy Journal:—The district of which Lee county has at times been a part, has been represented by such men as Elihu B. Washburn, M. L. Burchard, Thos. J. Henderson, Robert R. Hitt, and as the district is now made up there are men of ability and standing to keep up the high standard heretofore maintained. Such a man, we believe, may be found in John C. McKenzie of Elizabetta, Jo Daviess county, whose announcement may be found in this paper and who makes a fair and comprehensive statement of his position on various questions that are now before the Congress. Mr. McKenzie is well known as one of the leading members of the State Senate, and a man of large abilities and broad views. He is a clean man in every way socially and politically and would represent this district with credit and honor.

IS ABOVE SUSPICION

Mount Carroll Democrat:—No man can point a finger at anything John C. McKenzie's legislative career that has even the touch of suspicion to it. People who have had dealings with John C. McKenzie, private and public, will say that he deserves the appellation of "Honest John." For nobody has ever known of his doing anything that was not strictly honest, and above board.

MCKENZIE PLAIN CITIZEN

Carroll County Mirror:—John C. McKenzie is a plain citizen, without frills or plug hat ideas, and these attributes are winners for him. Though in his native ability and the people of this district have in him a man safe and sure, one to be relied upon for just and equitable legislation, and a man fully competent to give that highest type of representation in the halls of congress.

LOWDEN'S WORTHY SUCCESSOR
Amboy News:—John C. McKenzie's legislative experience qualifies him for congress as few men in the 13th district are qualified. If he is nominated and elected, the people will have chosen a worthy successor to Congressman Lowden.

POSSESSES TRAINED MIND
Senator McKenzie would bring to the discharge of the duties of the office a mind trained in legislative ways and his personality is such that he would receive a warm welcome and speedy recognition. His qualifications for the office are unquestioned even by those who favor his opponent in the canvass.

STANDS WITH THE PEOPLE
Prophetstown Echo:—It is certain John C. McKenzie has a record that will count him in the end. He is a progressive in politics and stands with the people he represents. We look for him to poll a heavy vote in Whiteside county and if elected to represent his constituency he will give everybody a square deal.

MCKENZIE "MADE GOOD"
Warren Sentinel-Leader:—Senator McKenzie is so well known in our county, has made his way up from a poor farmer boy to the high councils of our state, has served us so ably and so long in both branches of our state legislature without a blemish on his record or character, that it would seem superfluous for us to give any reason why Jo Daviess county republicans should support him at the primaries. He has "made good," as the saying is, wherever we have placed him.

MCKENZIE GAINING GROUND
Carroll County Mirror:—If John C. McKenzie is not the next congressman for this district the prospects are much amiss. In every county he has gained ground and is receiving strong support. The reason is that he is considered a safe man, a capable man and a candidate worthy of universal support because of his honesty and well-known principles on national matters. No republican will go amiss if they vote for him at the primaries to be held Thursday.

INVITES INVESTIGATION
Lee County Times (Pawpaw):—John C. McKenzie's experience rarely places him in a position to be able to accomplish more for the district than one who has had no experience in public life. He is not ashamed to refer to his record and in fact invites all to look up his record of the past

MAN OF THE PEOPLE
Warren Sentinel:—Press and people alike know Senator McKenzie to be clean, politically as well as in private life, and they have every reason to believe he would make an able representative. We believe him to be a man of the people, for the people and would like to see him a member of Congress.

RECORD ESTABLISHED
Ogle County Republican:—John C. McKenzie's record is already established. He has passed through the experimental stage and is ready to pick up the work where Col. Lowden leaves off. The wise thing to do is to vote for John C. McKenzie and we confidently predict that he will carry every county in the district—except Stephenson county the home of his opponent.

BEST FITTED MAN
Ashton Gazette:—Just now Illinois needs men in the United States Congress and needs men that are MEN, and John C. McKenzie has demonstrated his worth, therefore we think him the best fitted man to take Col. Frank O. Lowden's seat. Considering Mr. McKenzie's useful service and unimpeachable record it seems to us that few persons, if any, could be found so fully equipped to represent us in congress.

WORTHY OF COMMENDATION
Harvard Herald:—If the Herald was published in the congressional district in which John C. McKenzie lives, it would be for him for congress, or for any other elective office in Illinois, for it knows him as an able lawyer, an honest legislator and one of the men in public life worthy of commendation.

MUCH ENCOURAGED WITH CAMPAIGN

ATTORNEY JOHN CRABTREE GIVES SUPPORT AS CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY JUDGE

Attorney John B. Crabtree has been putting in considerable time the past few days in a canvass of the county in the interest of his candidacy for the republican nomination and the results of the canvass have been very pleasing to Mr. Crabtree, for he has been given a great deal of encouragement in every part of the county he has visited. Mr. Crabtree is a young man whom it is a pleasure to meet. He impresses one with his sincerity of purposes, quiet resourcefulness and judicial bearing and he has a training which especially qualifies him for the position he seeks.

Mr. Crabtree is a graduate of the law department of the University of Wisconsin and has been practicing law in Dixon for the past ten years. For several years he held the office of justice of the peace in Dixon and many important cases came before him. His record in this office was that of a peacemaker and he brought many litigants together who would otherwise have been plunged into expensive litigation. There was a uniform fairness and justice about all of his decisions which has made him many friends and stamped him as a man of ability and integrity.

He has always taken an active interest in the success of the republican party and has never neglected any opportunity to advance its interests. His name on the ticket will add strength to the campaign this fall and he will not stop working for the ticket when he has finished his primary campaign.

Fooling Her Husband.
That there are more ways than one of "killing a cat" is a well known fact, but the newest of ways has been evolved from the fertile brain of a Germantown woman who is blessed with a stingy husband. This husband is generous enough in one sense of the word. His wife may have the best attire the stores afford charged to his account, but she may handle no money. Women, in this man's opinion, know nothing of the value of a dollar. On leaving for his office in the morning he kisses her goodby and thrusts a quarter's worth of trolley tickets into her hand.

Now milady goes shopping, buys a few necessities and a fifty dollar wrap for which she has no use whatever. Next day she returns the latter, receives a credit slip for $50 and betakes herself to the handkerchief counter, where she spends 50 cents, receiving $49.50 change. Placing some small change in her purse and stowing the roll of greenbacks in what she considers a safer receptacle, she leaves the shop feeling that she has made the best of a bad bargain.—Philadelphia Record.

Joan M. Trostle of Ashton who is seeking the republican nomination of sheriff of Lee county has for thirty-five years been a prominent worker in the republican party. He bears the scars of many a hard fought political battle. He has carried the party's standard to the front during all these years.

If there is any one man in the county whom the republicans should honor with public office, that man is Joan M. Trostle. Voters, we will appreciate all you can do for him.

With reference to the filing of his petition with the county clerk Mr. Trostle said:

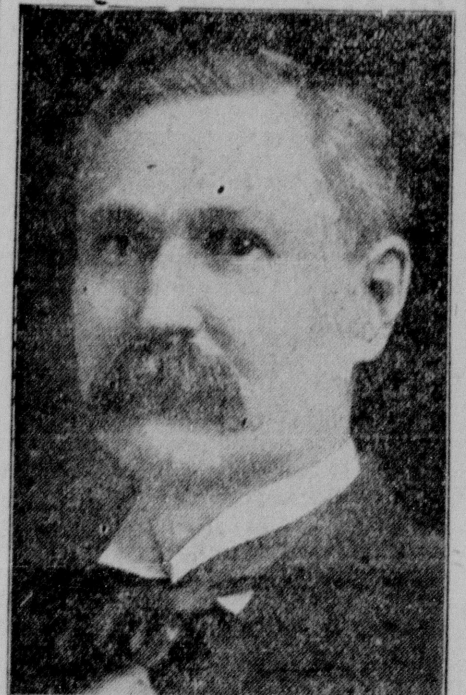

"Mr. Reid and I filed our petitions at the same time and in my judgment the location of our names on the ticket should have been decided by lot and I proposed such a plan but Mr. Reid refused positively to settle it in any such manner.

"For some reason not known to myself my name appears second on the ballot. I mention this fact that the voters of the county may know that I stand for fair play and to inform them of my location should they feel inclined to support me."

DR. J. H. GRAY TAKES THE LEAD

COMPLICATIONS REMOVED AND SENTIMENT SETTLES IN HIS FAVOR

Amboy Journal: The sentiment in favor of Dr. John H. Gray for state senator seems to be on the increase not only in Lee, but in Whiteside county, where the opposition to him small at any time, has now been practically removed and sentiment has crystallized wholly in his favor. Republican voters of Whiteside county will, it is now believed give their almost solid support to Dr. Gray at the primaries, Sept. 15, because that county is entitled to the office because Dr. Gray is a home man and because he is far better qualified for the place than the average man. As a home man most voters of that county would prefer Dr. Gray as he would be far more likely to have an interest in looking after what Whiteside county people want and need than would some person elected from half a hundred miles away who had his own county affairs to attend to.

The same condition exists here in Lee county. All complications have been removed and sentiment seems to have settled pretty generally in favor of Dr. Gray, as by right entitled to the office, in fulfillment of an agreement made years ago. Were Dr. Gray not so eminently qualified for the position by experience, ability and a thoroughly clean record as a man, citizen and official, there would be some excuse for Lee county not coming to his support, but under the conditions as they exist—for the welfare of the district and in compliance with an obligation that courtesy demands should be fully recognized republican voters seem inclined to give Dr. Gray their support at the primaries Sept. 15.

IS THIS CONSISTENT?

HARRIS' FRIENDS POINT OUT QUEER ATTITUDE OF THE L. V. L.

Organization Gave Candidate Strong Endorsement Two Years Ago and Withholds It Now

The Legislative Voters League endorsed Arthur G. Harris of Dixon, when he was a candidate for the state senate in very strong language. The league did not endorse his candidacy for the legislature this year and Mr. Harris' many friends think it strange that the league could have made such a flop as Mr. Harris has during the past two years held no legislative office in which he could have performed any acts with which the league could have regarded either favorably or unfavorably.

Here is what the league said two years ago, as contained in a circular issued by the league for publication before the primaries held Aug. 6, 1908.

Action of the League
The Advisory Council of the Legislative Voters League of the State of Illinois for the Thirty-fifth Senatorial District, meeting at Sterling, July 11, 1908, adopted the following:

"Resolved, That in view of the comparative records and qualifications of the republican candidate for Senator from this district, Mr. Arthur G. Harris of Dixon, is hereby endorsed and republican voters of the district are urged to support him at the Republican primaries, August 8.

Vote For Harris
Because if elected will stand against the "Senate Combine!"

Because he has always stood for pure politics.

Because a thorough investigation shows he has a clean private life and public record.

Because he has already demonstrated ability in framing legislation. Because he has been and is a strong supporter of the direct primary law and pledges himself to save it from its foes.

Because with his experience and knowledge of the law, and his character and ability, he will at once become a lawmaker of influence and will properly represent his district in the House.

The peculiar conduct of the league in strongly endorsing Harris one time and then failing to endorse him another time, without Harris having been in the legislature where he could have a chance to either please or displease the league, puts the league in a very odd position so Harris' friends say, and it is said, is making a lot of friends and votes for Mr. Harris.

If Harris was so desirable as a candidate two years ago, why is he not just as desirable now, especially when he has had no chance to show that he is not just as worthy as he was two years ago," is the question that is being asked.—Sterling Gazette, Adv.

Inertia of the Nerves.

The researches and experiments of a French scientist have led him to the conclusion that the cerebral nervous system is incapable of perceiving more than an average of ten separate impressions per second. After each excitation of the nerves a period of inertia follows, lasting about one-tenth of a second, and during this period a new impression cannot be made. According to the investigations of this scientist a person cannot make more than ten or at the most a dozen separate voluntary movements of any kind in a second, although the muscles, independently of the will, are capable of making as many as thirty or forty.

A Romantic Career.

The romantic career of a very remarkable man, John Gully, who succeeded Cribb in his battle with Molleneux, is thus summed up in the "Dictionary of National Biography." "Prizefighter, horse racer, legislator and colliery proprietor." Gully fought his first fight just before Trafalgar. He fought his last and retired from the prize ring in a blaze of triumph seven years before Waterloo. Gully rose to be a rich man and a member of parliament. He won the Derby three times and was the owner of a large and prosperous colliery. He died in 1863, the father of twenty-four children.

His Sarcastic Apology.

A well known New Yorker figured in a quaint encounter with a "paunder" not long ago. The fellow had asked him for a dime, when the following conversation took place: "You're a positive nuisance! Tuesday you struck me for a dime, Thursday I gave you another, and now you have the nerve to ask for a third!" "Excuse me, but are you the gent that gave me a dime on this corner the day before yesterday?" "Yes." "And now I've tackled you for the third time?" "Yes." "Wasn't said the hobo contritely, 'I sincerely beg your pardon, old man. That's too much gall even for me. The only excuse I have to offer is that you have improved so much in your personal appearance that I didn't recognize you.'"—Cleveland Leader.

A Tree in a Thunderstorm.

Every one is aware that it is not wise to seek a tree's shelter in a thunderstorm, but if you must take refuge there then climb to the topmost branches. It has been proved that the upper boughs of trees during a storm would be the safest position, and it is said that birds in the branches are seldom killed. When the tree is struck by lightning it is the trunk which, presumably from its greater dryness, is a bad conductor and which therefore suffers the most.

Ancient Oath Taking.

A method of taking the oath far more hygienic than kissing the book was that observed at the Forest of Dean Mine court for about 500 years, beginning in the thirteenth century. It was not for any hygienic reasons, but to prevent soiling the book that the miners before giving evidence touched the four gospels with a stick of holly. The witnesses wore their hats to show that they were free miners.—London Chronicle.

LORRAINE FALLS INTO SEA

Actor-Aviator Swims to Lighthouse and Breaks Record.

Makes Trip From Holyhead to Dublin and Return, Making Record for Sea Journey by Aeroplanes.

Dublin, Sept. 12.—Robert Lorraine, the actor-aviator, failed to swim the Irish channel by sixty yards. He left Holyhead, travelled sixty miles, being out of sight of land for more than forty miles, and then, with victory apparently in his grasp, fell into the sea. Yachtsmen in the bay saw an aeroplane descending from a great height. It struck the water about sixty yards from the shore near the Bally light-house. Lorraine, who was wearing a lifebelt, swam towards the lighthouse, from which a boat put out. Soon afterwards the Dublin steamer Adela lowered a boat and drew the partly submerged aeroplane to the side of the ship. After reaching the lighthouse, Lorraine set out again in a boat for the Adela. He found the injury to the machine was slight. The Gnome engine was in perfect condition. Lorraine proceeded to Dublin and later returned to Holyhead, having made a record for sea journey by aeroplane.

FOIL CONVICTS' ESCAPE

Twenty-Five Men in Joliet Pen Set Fire to Cell House.

Were Employed in Brick Yards and It Was Planned to Make Break for Liberty During Confusion.

Joliet, Ill., Sept. 12.—Twenty-five convicts in the state prison, employed in the brick yards, made a desperate attempt to escape early Sunday by setting fire to the building in which they were confined.

It is believed that the prisoners, who were treated as semi-trustees, thought that in the confusion resulting from the fire they would have a good chance to escape. The flames were quickly discovered by the guards and an alarm soon brought others from their beds, affording the men no opportunity to get away.

Just what course the colonel will pursue at Saratoga he does not know himself. He said that he will work for a clean cut and progressive ticket, and that he is willing to take a chance of getting kicked in the struggle. There were no crowds and no brass bands to greet the colonel as he stepped off the train in Jersey City. The two young sons of Publisher Howland, Karl and Harold, were on hand, but a demonstration was lacking.

MAN'S ARM PULLED OFF

Frank Harding's Arm Dismembered from Body by Wheel.

Engine Stops on Dead Center and in Attempting to Start Again Coat Catches in Machine.

Anderson, Ind., Sept. 12.—Frank Harding, a young farmer living four miles west of Summitville and twenty miles north of this city, in this county, is minus his right arm as a result of an accident. During the interim between busy farm seasons Harding has been operating a sawmill, and Saturday night his stationary engine stopped on a dead center. Without turning off the steam Harding put his shoulder to the flywheel to lift it off center.

The wheel started with a rush and the clothing on his arm caught on a projection of the wheel. He was hurled so violently as to pull one arm loose from the body at a point eight inches from the shoulder. The arm was hanging to the flywheel when the machinery was stopped. Three inches of bone stripped of the muscle was left exposed on the stump of the arm. Physicians say he will recover.

Mrs. Sadler and Miss Pardee, in the tonneau, were caught under the overturned car. Miss Pardee had been crushed about the chest, and Mrs. Sadler was badly hurt about the legs, one leg being broken and she also sustained many cuts and bruises. Her injuries may prove fatal.

$500,000 TO FIGHT SUFFRAGE

Lord Cromer Leads English Opponents of Votes For Women.

Opponents of woman suffrage seem to have realized that an attitude of passive resistance will no longer meet the case. The suffragists came to the conclusion just at the psychological moment that they were rapidly taking enough rope to hang themselves with and stopped short suddenly. Their more sensible procedure stirred their opponents to action.

Lord Cromer entered the field and asked for a fighting fund of $500,000. The money began to roll in immediately. Several checks for $5,000 were sent at once. Last week $10,000 was paid into the bank account, and the sum asked for seems likely to be raised soon.

From the start the suffragists have put up money freely, and when both sides are equipped with the sinews of war the campaign will probably be livelier than ever.

LIGHT FOR PENNY IN SLOT.

Saxon Village Has Frugal Method to Aid "Night Hawks."

The authorities of the village of Saxon, in Saxony, with 215 inhabitants, recently installed electric light in the streets. The light is cut off at 11 p. m., when it is supposed everybody is in bed.

The authorities, however, discovered a number of clubmen who were "afraid to go home in the dark" and who kicked about having the lights extinguished at 11. To meet their demands the authorities have attached penny in the slot devices to the light poles.

A tired clubman going home in the dark after 11 can now fumble his way to an electric light pole, drop a penny in the slot and light his way home, if he lives far from his club two successive pennies will do the trick.

DUCHESS OF AOSTA ALSO MIGHTY AFRICAN HUNTER.

Returns to Naples With Twenty Cases of Specimens.

The Duchess of Aosta has followed in ex-President Roosevelt's footsteps as a hunter of big game, and she recently made a triumphant arrival at Naples after a ten months' tour in the Congo. Waiting to meet the duchess and welcome her back to domestic life were her husband, the Duke of Aosta, and her two sons, the Princes Amedeo and Aimone, who have just gone to Italy on their holidays from Eton.

The duchess was accompanied by Miss Beck, an English maid, and a bright looking orphan negro boy whom she brought from the Congo because he became so attached to her that it would have been cruel to leave him behind. Besides a vast amount of personal baggage, she brought back twenty cases of wild beast trophies slain in East Rhodesia in the neighborhood of Victoria Nyanza.

She is in excellent health after her adventures. Life in the open is quite to her taste, and she is full of her experiences among the warlike tribes through whose territory she journeyed. Everywhere she was the recipient of extraordinary honors. All sorts of entertainments were organized for her, and everywhere she was treated as a queen visiting her people.

She has kept an elaborate diary, the publication of which with the proceeds of a vast quantity of cinematograph films for which she received a commission before her departure from Europe will more than cover the expenses of this second remarkable journey she has made.

The duchess, who was Princess Helen of Orleans, has always been a keen sportswoman and is an excellent shot. She is thirty-nine, but in appearance is far younger, with a slender, agile figure and an eager, intelligent face.

THIS ad. is directed at the man who has all the business in his line in this community.

Mr. Merchant—You say you've got it all. You're selling them all they'll buy, anyhow. But at the same time you would like more business. Make this community buy more.

Advertise strongly, consistently, judiciously. Suppose you can buy a lot of washtubs cheap; advertise a big washtub sale in this paper. Put in an inviting picture of a washtub where people can see it the minute they look at your ad. Talk strong on washtubs. And you'll find every woman in this vicinity who has been getting along with a rickety washtub for years and years will buy a new one from you. That's creative business power.

Big Cargo, Little Ship.
An old official of the navy tells the following story of a conversation he heard between two old sailors:
"It was a rat ship I was sailin' in that trip," said one of the shellbacks. "One of the dingiest rat ships I ever knew. They was rats in it from bow to stern, in the hold, in the galley, in the steerage, in the fo'c'st, in the old man's room—everywhere rats, uthin' but."
"Bimeby it got so bad we had to put 'n an' get 'em off. So we hooked up a dock an' fumigated. I was on deck, an' I saw them rats leavin'. I counted 'em. They was 15,000,000 of 'em."
"Fifteen million?" asked the other. "Ain't that a lot o' rats? Are you sure?"
"Sure! Yes, I'm sure. They was 15,000,000 rats, and I counted 'em. More than that, every rat weighed half a pound. They was big fat, sassy ones, I'm tellin'."
"Fifteen million rats, and every one weighed half a pound, and they all came off your ship. That's 7,500,000 pounds of rats. Say, Jim, what was the tonnage of that ship?"
"Oh, about a hundred and fifty tons." Judge.

RAWN HEIRS WANT CASH
Accident Insurance Amounting to $127,000 Is Demanded.
Life Insurance Policies Held by Monon President in Sum of $43,000 Paid—May Be Legal Contests.
Chicago, Sept. 12.—Formal demand for the payment of $127,000 accident insurance carried by the late Ira G. Rawn, president of the Monon railroad, has been made of the nine companies in which he held policies. According to the verdict of the coroner's jury Rawn came to his death by a bullet of a revolver held in his own hand. All the life insurance policies, aggregating $13,000, have been paid except a couple in small companies for $2,000 or $3,000. In most cases the policies were paid within two days of proof of death. The proofs of loss were sent to the various concerns in registered letters by F. B. Johnstone, of the law firm of Runkles, Burry & Johnstone, attorneys for the Rawn family. Mrs. Rawn and other members of the family, who were in the Winnetka residence on the night of Mr. Rawn's death, were included among the defendants and in some cases the certificate of the clergyman who officiated at the funeral and a copy of the coroner's jury's verdict were included. Ezra J. Warner Is Dead. Chicago, Sept. 12.—Friends of Ezra J. Warner, one of the founders of Sprague, Warner & Co., wholesale grocers, were shocked when they learned of the sudden death of the merchant. Mr. Warner was sixty-nine years old. He returned to his home from his offices and announced that he would go to his room to dress for dinner. A short time later he was found dead by his son Harold.

LORIMER RESIGNS CLUB MEMBERSHIP
Quits Hamilton Club as Result of Roosevelt Episode.
WILL ALSO TAKE THE STUMP
Report is That Many of Senator's Friends Will Also Tender Their Resignations—Directors May Refuse to Accept Them.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—William Lorimer has made two unexpected moves. His first was to resign from the Hamilton club as his answer to the snub he suffered when, at the direction of Theodore Roosevelt, he refused to dine at the same table with him, his invitation to the Hamilton club banquet having been withdrawn in a telegram signed by President John H. Batten. The senator's second swing was in an announcement, made through County Controller James L. Monaghan, that, breaking his months of persistent silence during the rain of legislative bribery scandals and indictments, he would take the stump for at least two speeches preceding the Republican primaries next Thursday. These addresses, at which the senator will answer Gov. Deneen will be as follows:
Monday night—Pilsen park, Twenty-sixth street and Albany avenue, where Gov. Deneen spoke Friday night.
Tuesday night—Dewey hall, Twelfth street and Fortieth avenue.
The senator's resignation from the Hamilton club was in the following letter sent to President Batten:
"I hereby tender my resignation as a member of the Hamilton club and ask that it be accepted immediately."
Senator Lorimer was just leaving the LaSalle Street National bank in his automobile for his summer place on Fox lake when he was asked for a statement said:
"It is true," said Mr. Lorimer, "that I have sent in my resignation as a member of the Hamilton club. That speaks for itself and I have no further comment to make on the circumstances that caused me to take that action."
"There are numerous members of the club," said President Batten, "who criticize Col. Roosevelt for refusing to sit at table with Senator Lorimer, who was a member of the club and had been invited to attend."
In spite of President Batten's belief that Lorimer's friends would not take their cue from the senator and also send in their resignations, there were reports that numerous withdrawals were in contemplation. Members who, it was stated, might follow this course are Congressman Frederick Lundin, City Collector E. J. Magerstadt, Chris Mamer, Joseph Bidwill, Jr., James L. Monaghan, Joseph Bednoeh, Adolmer Peter M. Hoffman, Judge Adolmer J. Pett, State Representative James M. Kittleman, Harry F. Atwood, who is a candidate for congress in the Third district; former City Clerk John R. McCabe, Fred M. Blount, and others almost as well known.

Among the possibilities is that Senator Lorimer's resignation will not be accepted by the board of directors, whose next meeting will be held Sept. 20. A special meeting may be called.

TEN KILLED WHEN TUNNEL CAVES IN
Many Others Seriously Injured In Jersey City Disaster.
LIST OF THE DEAD AND INJURED
Priests Aid in Rescue of Dead and Dying—Many of the Victims Horribly Mutilated—Tunnel Death List Very Large.
New York, Sept. 12.—The long list of more than 200 workmen killed in the construction of the New York, Lake Erie and Western railroad's new open cut through the Bergen Hill was increased by ten, with the cave-in of a section of the adjoining old tunnel of the western entrance to the cut, just west of the Hudson boulevard, between Hopkins avenue and Elm street, Jersey City. Ten were killed and as many more were injured, some so seriously that the doctors at the hospitals believe they cannot recover.
Ever since the Millard Construction company completed the open cut, the Erie railroad has been putting the finishing touches to the great engineering job with the help of a big gang of drillers, laborers and muckers, who had worked for the construction company.
The dead: John Blass, brother of foreman, arrested; James Feecey, Angelo Triano, Vincenzo Colenzono, Louis Martins, unidentified man, William Hallis, Jisentine Scinlebi, Joseph Bauman, Edward Coleman.
The injured: George Plash, chest, arms and legs crushed; Carman Reo, right leg broken; Pantaleone Cortello, right leg crushed; W. S. Johnstone, right leg crushed; Angelo Dellamo, head and body bruised; John Lewis, colored, fractured legs, chest crushed; Poro Bonenatto, injuries to head and body; Leo Fortelli, body bruised; Joseph Catene, legs crushed.
The drill drivers and rockmen put in a hard day's work on Saturday and had broken up a big section of the trap rock over the brick arch of the tunnel. Orders were given to the drill drivers, helpers and laborers to clear away the broken stone and thirty or more started on the job early Sunday morning. At the same time a big steam shovel tackled the debris which bottled up the west end of the tunnel.
The brick arch on top of the tunnel bore the entire weight of the rock. The men pried the broken stones with their hodge hammers and pried with their crowbars, unconscious of any unusual danger, tumbling the stones down to the track level to the muckers. In the meantime derick men were yanking great blocks of rock from their resting places on the roof of the arch by means of two dericks standing on the edge of the cut and swinging them to spots where the derickmen could further reduce their size.
At 10:30 o'clock while the men were the busiest, and the steam shovel was bucking the pile hardest, a 35-foot section of the brick arch suddenly caved in with a dull bang. Persons looking down from the Hudson boulevard bridge, saw many men slip into the hole with tons of broken stone. Most of them went down feet first with their hands raised above their heads. Mass had just been finished at St. John's Catholic church, nearby, and the Rev. Father H. W. Smith, the rector, and his assistants, Fathers W. B. Dunn and J. E. Mulligan, went to the cut to minister to the spiritual needs of the dead and dying.
As fast as a wounded man was discovered, the priests administered the last rites of the church and in most instances, Father Mulligan and one of the doctors made the trip up the bluff in the derick box with the victims.
Dr. Mueller, the first physician to reach the injured saw a leg protruding from under some rocks. He dived after it and the man's shoe came off in his hand. The leg was hanging limp from the hip and the doctor realized that a speedy amputation was necessary to liberate the victim. He quickly performed the operation and John Blass, a drill foreman, was carried up in the derick. He was taken to the city hospital, where he died.
Dr. Presley, of the city hospital, found two men locked in each other's arms under a pile of broken stone. He pried them apart and carried one to the box dangling on the end of the derick rope. As he stepped in the man gasped and died in his arms. While digging out the pair, an excited Italian rolled a rock on Dr. Presley's left wrist, badly bruising it.

THIS IS CERTAIN
THE PROOF THAT DIXON READERS CANNOT DENY.
What could furnish stronger evidence to the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills cure permanently.
Home endorsements should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Years ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.
Julius Gottlieb, 418 W. First St., Dixon, Ill., says: "My back pained me for some time and I was often so lame and sore it was hard for me to stoop. The secretions from my kidneys were irregular in passage and I was then convinced that these organs were disordered. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a box at the Leake Bros. Co.'s drug store and commenced their use. My experience with this remedy was very satisfactory and I am pleased to acknowledge the benefits I received. Doan's Kidney Pills lived up to all the claims made for them in my case." (Statement given April 14, 1909.)
A Lasting Effect.
Mr. Gottlieb was interviewed on January 4, 1910, and he added to the above: "You may continue to publish my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. The relief they gave me has been permanent and I now have no trouble from my kidneys whatever. I have often told other persons of the great merit of Doan's Kidney Pills."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name — Doan's — and take no other.

TEXAS STORMS ARE SEVERE
Cotton Crop Damaged by Wind and Hail—Many Chickens Killed.
Galveston, Tex., Sept. 12.—A severe wind, hail and rain storm which swept over four or five counties Friday night and Saturday, damaged crops, especially the cotton crop, which was stripped from the fields by the wind or ruined by the hail. Thousands of acres of unpicked cotton was beaten down by the hail and later placed into swelling streams by heavy winds.
The hail killed chickens and other farm yard fowls by the thousands. The storm swept through sixty miles of the Brazos bottoms and destroyed crops on either side, the greatest damage being from hail.

The leg was hanging limp from the hip and the doctor realized that a speedy amputation was necessary to liberate the victim. He quickly performed the operation and John Blass, a drill foreman, was carried up in the derick. He was taken to the city hospital, where he died.
Dr. Presley, of the city hospital, found two men locked in each other's arms under a pile of broken stone. He pried them apart and carried one to the box dangling on the end of the derick rope. As he stepped in the man gasped and died in his arms. While digging out the pair, an excited Italian rolled a rock on Dr. Presley's left wrist, badly bruising it.

THIS IS CERTAIN
THE PROOF THAT DIXON READERS CANNOT DENY.
What could furnish stronger evidence to the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills cure permanently.
Home endorsements should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Years ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.
Julius Gottlieb, 418 W. First St., Dixon, Ill., says: "My back pained me for some time and I was often so lame and sore it was hard for me to stoop. The secretions from my kidneys were irregular in passage and I was then convinced that these organs were disordered. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a box at the Leake Bros. Co.'s drug store and commenced their use. My experience with this remedy was very satisfactory and I am pleased to acknowledge the benefits I received. Doan's Kidney Pills lived up to all the claims made for them in my case." (Statement given April 14, 1909.)
A Lasting Effect.
Mr. Gottlieb was interviewed on January 4, 1910, and he added to the above: "You may continue to publish my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. The relief they gave me has been permanent and I now have no trouble from my kidneys whatever. I have often told other persons of the great merit of Doan's Kidney Pills."

TEXAS STORMS ARE SEVERE
Cotton Crop Damaged by Wind and Hail—Many Chickens Killed.
Galveston, Tex., Sept. 12.—A severe wind, hail and rain storm which swept over four or five counties Friday night and Saturday, damaged crops, especially the cotton crop, which was stripped from the fields by the wind or ruined by the hail. Thousands of acres of unpicked cotton was beaten down by the hail and later placed into swelling streams by heavy winds.
The hail killed chickens and other farm yard fowls by the thousands. The storm swept through sixty miles of the Brazos bottoms and destroyed crops on either side, the greatest damage being from hail.

TEN KILLED WHEN TUNNEL CAVES IN
Many Others Seriously Injured In Jersey City Disaster.
LIST OF THE DEAD AND INJURED
Priests Aid in Rescue of Dead and Dying—Many of the Victims Horribly Mutilated—Tunnel Death List Very Large.
New York, Sept. 12.—The long list of more than 200 workmen killed in the construction of the New York, Lake Erie and Western railroad's new open cut through the Bergen Hill was increased by ten, with the cave-in of a section of the adjoining old tunnel of the western entrance to the cut, just west of the Hudson boulevard, between Hopkins avenue and Elm street, Jersey City. Ten were killed and as many more were injured, some so seriously that the doctors at the hospitals believe they cannot recover.
Ever since the Millard Construction company completed the open cut, the Erie railroad has been putting the finishing touches to the great engineering job with the help of a big gang of drillers, laborers and muckers, who had worked for the construction company.
The dead: John Blass, brother of foreman, arrested; James Feecey, Angelo Triano, Vincenzo Colenzono, Louis Martins, unidentified man, William Hallis, Jisentine Scinlebi, Joseph Bauman, Edward Coleman.
The injured: George Plash, chest, arms and legs crushed; Carman Reo, right leg broken; Pantaleone Cortello, right leg crushed; W. S. Johnstone, right leg crushed; Angelo Dellamo, head and body bruised; John Lewis, colored, fractured legs, chest crushed; Poro Bonenatto, injuries to head and body; Leo Fortelli, body bruised; Joseph Catene, legs crushed.
The drill drivers and rockmen put in a hard day's work on Saturday and had broken up a big section of the trap rock over the brick arch of the tunnel. Orders were given to the drill drivers, helpers and laborers to clear away the broken stone and thirty or more started on the job early Sunday morning. At the same time a big steam shovel tackled the debris which bottled up the west end of the tunnel.
The brick arch on top of the tunnel bore the entire weight of the rock. The men pried the broken stones with their hodge hammers and pried with their crowbars, unconscious of any unusual danger, tumbling the stones down to the track level to the muckers. In the meantime derick men were yanking great blocks of rock from their resting places on the roof of the arch by means of two dericks standing on the edge of the cut and swinging them to spots where the derickmen could further reduce their size.
At 10:30 o'clock while the men were the busiest, and the steam shovel was bucking the pile hardest, a 35-foot section of the brick arch suddenly caved in with a dull bang. Persons looking down from the Hudson boulevard bridge, saw many men slip into the hole with tons of broken stone. Most of them went down feet first with their hands raised above their heads. Mass had just been finished at St. John's Catholic church, nearby, and the Rev. Father H. W. Smith, the rector, and his assistants, Fathers W. B. Dunn and J. E. Mulligan, went to the cut to minister to the spiritual needs of the dead and dying.
As fast as a wounded man was discovered, the priests administered the last rites of the church and in most instances, Father Mulligan and one of the doctors made the trip up the bluff in the derick box with the victims.
Dr. Mueller, the first physician to reach the injured saw a leg protruding from under some rocks. He dived after it and the man's shoe came off in his hand. The leg was hanging limp from the hip and the doctor realized that a speedy amputation was necessary to liberate the victim. He quickly performed the operation and John Blass, a drill foreman, was carried up in the derick. He was taken to the city hospital, where he died.
Dr. Presley, of the city hospital, found two men locked in each other's arms under a pile of broken stone. He pried them apart and carried one to the box dangling on the end of the derick rope. As he stepped in the man gasped and died in his arms. While digging out the pair, an excited Italian rolled a rock on Dr. Presley's left wrist, badly bruising it.

CITY IN BRIEF

Dr. J. H. Miller returned Sunday from the fair at Princeton. Dr. E. A. Sickels was in Oregon Friday afternoon on business. W. B. Merriman and wife left this morning for Kentucky on a business trip. The interior of the T. J. Miller music store is being refinished very tastefully. Albert Juells has moved from 326 Popular street to 304 West Chamberlain street. Miss Frances Burke of Chicago is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. James Bales. Harry Whippman spent Saturday and Sunday in Dixon, left this morning for Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kreiger of Algonquin are here visiting friends and relatives for a few days. Carl Fisher of Viola township was in Dixon Saturday calling on friends and transacting business. Charles Anderson, board of trade man, returned Saturday from a short vacation spent in Chicago. Raymond McGowan of the Chicago College of Law was here to spend Sunday with his parents. Miss Anna Lally of Eldena, who has been spending the summer at Storm Lake, Wis., has arrived home. Mr. and Mrs. Levi Heckman have returned from a two weeks visit with relatives in Brookfield and Chillicothe Mo. Mrs. Anna Lauff, daughter Elsie and son Harry have returned home from a three weeks' visit near Sterling. Hon Adam C. Cliffe and Dan Holm of Sycamore were here Saturday interesting the voters in the state senator contest. Miss Vera Jacobs is taking a weeks vacation from her duties in T. J. Miller's music store. She will visit in Freeport and Rockford. Mr. and Mrs. Redfern of Lake Geneva arrived Saturday to be the guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. C. H. Stitley. Mrs. C. M. Campbell has been ill for the last two days and medical attention was necessary last night. She is resting a little easier today. Allen Juells, who resided in Chicago for some time has gone to Minneapolis to accept a position with the Electric Protection company.

Improved farm in North Dakota, will make 25 per cent and possibly 100 per cent on the investment. I have listed 80 acres in Ogle county $90. 80 acres near Oregon $100. $2,000, $10,000 wanted on first mortgage, Dakota, $7,000, $10,000 first mortgage on farms in Oklahoma worth $25,00. E. A. Wadsworth 196tf

Parties wishing to go to Dakota or Minnesota to inspect the farms I offer for sale, write me when you wish to go as I expect to make trips each week after threshing is over in Illinois. More than a dozen have promised to go and the first gets first choice. Buy direct of parties wanting to sell; get a bargain and save big commissions. E. A. Wadsworth, Dixon, Ill. 85tf
